

Galway Fleadh 2015

Friday 15th May

The Fleadh will be officially opened in the Bailey Allen Hall NUI Galway at 7pm Friday evening by the president of Comhaltas Vincent Jordan who will address invited guests representing the political and cultural life of Galway.

The opening will be followed in the Bailey Allen by a concert of traditional music, song and dance with a special section by children drawn from national schools around Galway city and county.

Saturday 16th May

Competition commences in NUI Galway at 10am for U'9, U'12 and 12 to 15 age groups. Individual competitions take place in the various lecture halls along the concourse.

Irish Singing, Comhrá Gaeilge, Groupaí Cheoil and Sean Nós dancing will take place in Áras na Gaeilge. Groupaí Cheoil, Ceilí bands and ceilí dancing will be held in the Bailey Allen and the Cube. Throughout the day music sessions will take place in around the college where people are welcome to join in and play in a relaxed and friendly setting which is very much a part of the Fleadh.

On Saturday evening the Fleadh mass will be held in the College chapel at 7.30 pm.

Following mass a special presentation reception will be held in the Bailey Allen Hall.

To round off the day the Fleadh Ceilí will take place in the Cube starting at 10pm. The Cube is beside the Bailey Allen Hall .

Sunday 16th May

Competitions begin for age groups 15 to 18 and senior with the first event scheduled for 10 am. All the Céilí Dancing takes place on Sunday with the last competition scheduled for 4.30pm.

During the day open sessions will take place around the college giving musicians the opportunity to join in and play in a traditional 'session'.

Closing presentations will be held in the Bailey Allen at 6pm.

The day will finish with traditional sessions in and around the village of Maigh Cuilinn.
